

How to find us

Located in Sunbury on Thames, Middlesex, Cobra is easily accessible by car, rail and air. Journey time by car from London is approximately 30 minutes.

From the M25:

Leave the M25 at Junction 12 and join the M3 towards Richmond (London).

Leave the M3 at Junction 1 and take the first left onto the A308, Staines Road West, towards Staines.

Turn left at the third set of traffic lights onto Windmill Road; Sunbury Tyre and Exhaust Centre is on the right hand corner.

Turn left at the second set of traffic lights onto a small trading estate.

Cobra is the second building on the left.

By Train:

Upper Halliford is the closest station, and is served from London Waterloo.

Walk up from the station onto the bridge over the motorway.

Turn left and cross the bridge.

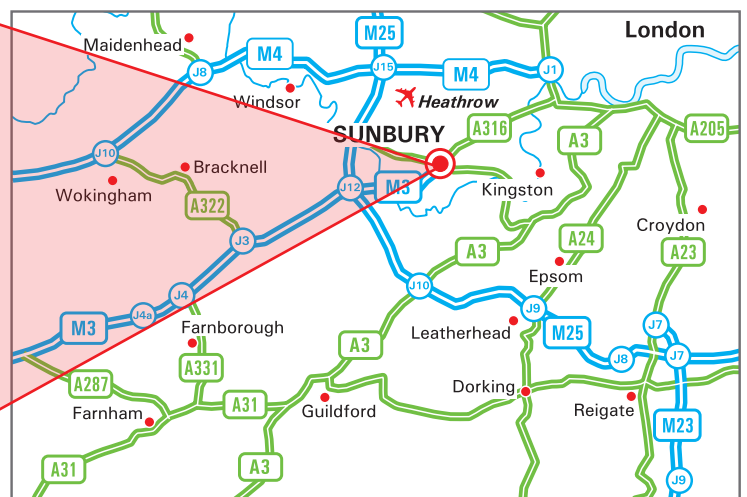

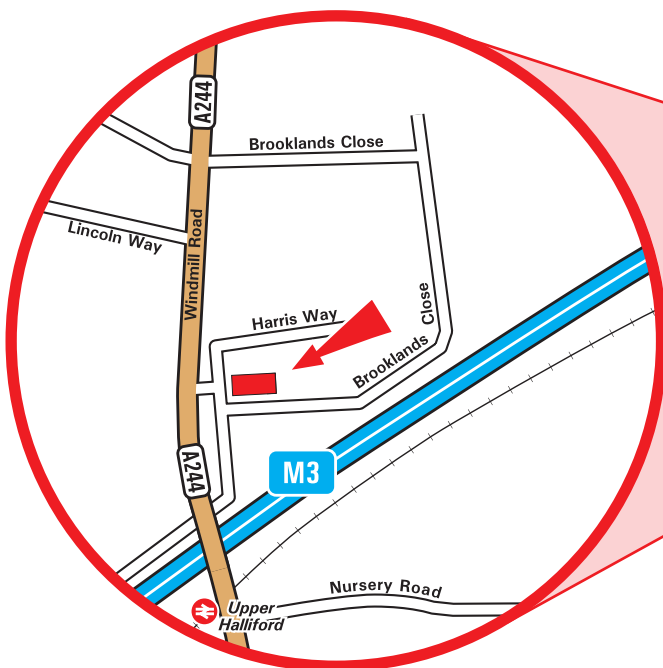

Turn right over the road at the first set of lights onto a small trading estate.

Take the second turning on your left into Brooklands Close, passing the Crown building and Cobra is the next building on the left.

By Air:

Heathrow Airport is only a 15 minute taxi ride away.
